Schwabe's John Mansfield Elected to Chair All Classical 89.9 KBPS Board of Directors

PORTLAND, Ore. (May 16, 2008) – Regional law firm Schwabe, Williamson & Wyatt announced today that John Mansfield, a shareholder in the firm's Portland office, was recently elected to the chair of the board of directors for All Classical 89.9 KBPS effective July 1, 2008.

Mansfield focuses his practice in the areas of intellectual property litigation and advice, including patent, trade secret, trademark, copyright and other intellectual property matters. He has extensive litigation experience involving a variety of hardware and software technologies, and has litigated in numerous federal and state courts, and in the International Trade Commission.

Mansfield graduated from the University of Oregon with a degree in music theory and from Cornell Law School with a juris doctor degree. During the late 1980s, he conducted and played keyboards for musical theatre in Portland, Ore. Although he is retired from regular public performances, Mansfield continues to support the arts in Portland as an audience member and now as the board chair of All Classical 89.9 KBPS.

All Classical 89.9 KBPS is a nonprofit 24-hour classical music station whose mission is to provide classical music and fine arts information to listeners in Northwest Oregon, Southwest Washington and the world via the Internet. On June 21, 2008, All Classical 89.9 will be celebrating its 25th Anniversary at a gala event at the Oregon Zoo, featuring keynote speaker Bill McGlaughlin, the host of American Public Media's St. Paul Sunday program.
