

FIRST NAME, LAST NAME

FIRST LAST is an attorney with FIRM NAME. His/Her practice emphasizes a wide range of commercial real estate transactions including environmental permits, remediation, and land use law. He/She has handled matters involving purchases and sales, leases, planned community development, sustainability and other land use and environmental matters. His/Her experience includes representing parties on all sides of the transaction, including landlords, tenants, buyers and sellers.

Prior to attending law school, FIRST was a research associate at a major biotechnology firm performing drug discovery research for neurological disease therapeutics.

He/She earned a B.S. from University of Oregon and his/her J.D. from Lewis & Clark Law School. FIRST sits on the board of NONPROFIT and in his/her leisure time he/she likes to ski, cook and spend time with his/her three children in CITY, STATE.